Secretary General moves to another role; New interim Secretary General

On 29 June 2021 the General Assembly accepted the resignation of Glenn Cezanne with effect on 30 June 2021, and as such from his role as European Enterprise Alliance Secretary General, Board Member and Treasurer.

"It has been an absolute pleasure and highly enlightening experience to have been part of the EEA from its inception. I am very thankful for having been trusted with building the EEA "from scratch" with its founding members and with a great Board of Directors initiating its presence in Brussels. I wish the EEA all the best in its endeavours and its continuously promising path as the voice of employers and entrepreneurs from the CEE region."

Glenn Cezanne

Natalia Macyra has taken over Glenn's duties as interim Board Member, Secretary General and Treasurer until later this year. Natalia joined the EEA as Deputy Secretary General in February 2021.

"I would like to thank Glenn for all his work and helping build the EEA, and not least helping the membership amplify their voice in Brussels and across Europe. I wish him all the best in his endeavours and look forward to an opportunity of working again together in the future."
