The European Enterprise Alliance welcomes the Voice of Entrepreneurs as a new Member.

On the 12th of January, the EEA welcomed the Voice of Entrepreneurs from Croatia as its newest member.

Voice of Entrepreneurs (Udruga Glas Poduzetnika) is an association of micro, small and medium entrepreneurs, craftsmen, self-employed and all employees in the private sector. Its goal is to accelerate the economic recovery and build healthy foundations with concrete proposals of necessary and urgent economic reforms addressed to the Government and state institutions. The Voice of Entrepreneurs is currently the largest and most numerous association of entrepreneurs in Croatia.

Marcin Nowacki, President of the European Enterprise Alliance: "I believe that thanks to this partnership, we will have an even stronger voice in Brussels and among European institutions, and we will be able to advance further the reforms that allow European companies to thrive."

Dražen Oreščanin, Executive Director of the Voice of Entrepreneurs, said, "As the largest Croatian organisation representing micro, small and medium-sized enterprises, craftsmen, the self-employed and employees in the private sector, we carry activities aimed at building a healthy foundation for Croatia 2.0. and thanks to the EEA membership, we can share our ideas and experience with other European organisations and create long-term sustainability of the economy and a favourable ecosystem for business across the continent."

Damir Filipovic, Secretary-General of the European Enterprise Alliance, added that "the Membership of the Voice of Entrepreneurs further contributes to increasing our network in the region and qualifies EEA to be an authentic voice representing the needs of businesses in Central and Eastern Europe. "
